Parker PM
Serving as a safe, nurturing and stimulating home away from home, Parker PM offers students an array of indoor and outdoor organized activities coupled with opportunities for creative free play. Older students have quiet time to complete their homework.

Parker PM is open to enrolled Parker students in JK–5th grade and operates Monday through Friday following the school's academic calendar. Our “Days-off” Program provides full-day options on Lower and Intermediate School Conference, Workshop and Writing Days.

Parker P.L.U.S.
(Programs for Learning Unique Stuff)

Parker P.L.U.S. provides enrolled students in JK–5th grade with opportunities to attend a variety of classes in multi-week sessions, typically meeting once a week. There are three P.L.U.S. sessions each school year, as well as a mini-session in September.

- Students do not need to attend Parker PM to participate in Parker P.L.U.S.
- JK and SK students may choose up to two P.L.U.S. classes per session with topics like cooking, soccer, judo, yoga and coding.
- 1st–5th graders may take up to five P.L.U.S. classes per session with topics like clay, floor hockey, dodgeball, Minecraft, chess and shop.
- After-P.L.U.S. is available if you are interested in having your child join Parker PM after their P.L.U.S. class from 1–3:10 p.m. for JK and SK or from 4:30–6 p.m. for grades 1-5.

2019–20 Parker P.L.U.S. Options and Pricing
