“All Of Us Are Special”

Music by Nancy Klein
Lyrics by Maria Foustalieraki

(First verse and refrain)
Hello, dear friends of all skin colors
You’re part of our human family
And yes, we all look a bit different
But all of us are special, yes indeed.

(refrain)
If people are mistreated
for the color of their skin,
I’ll stand up right beside these friends.
I’ll say that this is racism!
It’s so unfair and wrong
And we should never let it go on!

(refrain)
Let’s treat each other justly.
Let’s make fair rules and laws
That serve all people equally.
In this way, we do our part
To make a better world
For all in our community.

(refrain)
